This section of the Utah Code allows for the vacation, alteration or amendment to a subdivision plat without a public hearing if the petition seeks to:

- i. Join two or more of the petitioner fee owner's contiguous lots;
ii. Subdivide one or more of the petitioning fee owner's lots, if the subdivision will not result in a violation of a land use ordinance or a development condition;
iii. Adjust the lot lines of adjoining lots or parcels if the fee owners of each of the adjoining lots or parcels joins in the petition, regardless of whether the lots or parcels are located in the same subdivision;
iv. On a lot owned by the petitioning fee owner, adjust an internal lot restriction imposed by the local political subdivision; or
v. Alter the plat in a manner that does not change existing boundaries or other attributes of lots within that subdivision that are not:
(A) Owned by the petitioner; or
(B) Designated as a common area; and
vi. The vacation, alteration or amendment is approved by the Enoch City Council; and, vii. An amended plat showing the vacation, alteration, or amendment is submitted, signed by the City Council and recorded in the office of the county recorder in which the land is located; and viii. The document having satisfied all of the above conditions is to be recorded at the Iron County Recorders Office, 68 South 100 East, Parowan, Utah, within thirty (30) days of approval by the Enoch City Council.
